

October Student of the Month

Auto Service
Technology
Shamy Harney
Franklin Central H.S.

Mr. Harney is a second year student in our program. He is always on time and prepared for class. He is a leader in the program and at the top of his class. Mr. Harney will do well at whatever he chooses to do after his time at Central Nine.

-Mr. Owen-

Auto Service Technology
Phillip Loveall
Perry Meridian H.S.

Loveall is a very hard worker who leads his team well the right way. He takes no shortcuts in learning, just maximum effort.

- Mr. Tucker -

Computer Science
Chayce Grindle
Whiteland H.S.

Chayce is a student that is always up for a new challenge. He was part of the transition from Computer Repair Technology and Computer Science. He has not complained once, he does all his assignments on time and to perfection. I am looking forward to seeing how far he will develop as a programmer this school year.

-Mr. Paprocki-

Computer Tech Support & Networking
Braxton Laster
Greenwood H.S.

Being a second year student Braxton has been very helpful in the classroom helping the first year students as well as taking on outside projects. He is involved in Skills USA and NTHS. I am positive he will move on to a successful career in the EST and IT fields.

-Mr. Mullikin-

Construction Trades
Mendel Shank
Indian Creek H.S.

Mendel is one of the most determined students in the Construction Trades program. His positive attitude and willingness to help other students is inspiring to me as well as other students. It is really great to have a student leader like Mendel in my classroom and at the job.

-Mr. Wormann-

October Student of the Month

Cosmetology
Katherine Haase
Perry Meridian H.S.

Katie Haase has a great attitude, has great attendance, dresses professionally, and has great work ethic.

-Paul Mitchell-

Criminal Justice I
Eric Ford
Franklin Community H.S.

Eric stepped up as a squad leader when the class need him. He constantly leads by example and always puts his best foot forward.

-Mrs. Thompson-

Criminal Justice II
Sophia Fritsche
Franklin Central H.S.

Sophia is such a great person and always comes prepared.

-Mr. Fields-

Culinary Arts I
Nicholas Petrole
Franklin Community H.S.

Nick is always ready to learn and is very helpful to everyone around him. He has a great interest in food and cooking which shows everyday in his actions in the classroom and lab.

-Chef DeRudder-

Culinary Arts I
Alex Stash
Southport H.S.

No matter the task, Alex Stash embracing his kitchen assignments with a positive attitude and an exemplary work ethic. Stash is what you call a "go-to" guy!

-Chef Smith-

Culinary Arts II
Sydney Ray
Franklin Central. H.S.

Sydney has developed professionally over the past year, and has blossomed into an outstanding Advanced Culinary Arts student. She is dedicated and adaptable in all situations. Her skills in communication and teamwork are invaluable to our class.

-Chef Swopes-

October Student of the Month

Dental Careers
Reagen Lee
Franklin Central H.S.

Reagan has been doing a great job at her clinical job site. The staff made a point to call me and tell me how helpful she has been at their office.

-Mrs. Tunis-

Diesel Service Technology
Samuel Poe
Greenwood H.S.

Comes to school every day with a great attitude and works hard.

-Mr. Anderson -

EMS
Caleb Sulya
Center Grove H.S.

Caleb is extremely helpful in class and he and another student recently stayed after school to restock our ambulances. There is a three-way tie for #2 in both classes combined and he's one of them! In addition to showing leadership and having excellent grades at C9 Caleb also takes college courses at IUPUI two nights per week. Caleb has goals and a plan for his life and he's right on track!

-Mrs. Zimmer-

Health Science I
Hannah Schmelzle
Southport H.S.

Hannah is a senior from Southport that is interested in pursuing a career in health careers. She is determined to do the best that she can and is motivated by the goals she has set for herself. She is a leader in the classroom and works well in teams. She is professional in the classroom and inspires others to do well. I enjoy having her in my class.

-Ms. Pam-

Health Science I
Hannah Thomas
Franklin Community H.S.

Hannah is polite, professional, and steps up to help when necessary. She goes above what is required of her, and she has a positive attitude.

-Mrs. Hancock

HVAC
Dillon Russell
Indian Creek H.S.

He has good class conduct and has high academic standards.

-Mr. Bible-

October Student of the Month

Health Science II -
Medical Assisting
Paige Stamper
Home School

Paige is an exceptional student. She has good time management skills. She maintains perfect attendance with a high GPA. She has also been nominated for the National Technical Honor Society as well as National Youth Leadership.

-Mrs. Pfeiffer-

Health Science II - Nursing
Stevie Hiner
Indian Creek H.S.

Stevie Hiner is a model of cooperation, respect and engagement. She is a sincere and hard working individual, and an ideal student. She shows an aptitude for learning, is able to complete her work even when multi-tasking on two or more care procedures, and has a charming personality.

-Mrs. Lawton-

Landscape Management
Keegan Dehner
Southport H.S.

Keegan has given 110% on all activities. He went that extra mile to help with FFA activities at the State Fair.

-Mr. Ramey-

PLTW Bio-Med
Nick Huckleberry
Perry Meridian H.S.

Nick Huckleberry is a model of cooperation, collaboration, and respect. He is sincere, kind, and cheerful toward all. Each day, I am greeted by a friendly "Hi! How's your day going?" He also helps his classmates learn concepts, thus showing an aptitude for learning. Way to go Nick!!

-Mrs. King-

Precision Machining
Josh Schoenberg
Whiteland H.S.

Josh is doing very well on a paid internship at L.B. Mold. Josh sets up and operates Computer Numerical Control Machines, making wheel molds for the auto industry.

-Mr. Willoughby-

Veterinary Careers
Haleigh Jones
Whiteland H.S.

Haleigh is off to a great start in Vet Careers! She is enthusiastic and ready to work. She has also signed up for the Work Ethic Certification and NTHS.

-Mrs. Smith-

October Student of the Month

Visual Communication
Caleb Tabor
Beech Grove H.S.

Caleb has been a second year student we have been able to rely on time and time again not only as a mentor but as an ambassador for placed students as well as in the classroom and lab area.

-Mr. Briones & Mr. Magness

Work Based Learning
Josh Campbell
Franklin Community H.S.

Josh is a great student in the classroom and an even harder worker at his job site. He strives for excellence in all he sets out to accomplish. Josh has excellent IMPACT scores and always participates fully in classroom activities. Keep up the awesome work!

-Ms. Gaulin-

