3 Program Showcase - Culinary Careers

Clint Smith, Tiffany Swopes, Kevin Hurst

Minutes

Chef Smith shared a video and pictures from a former student A.J. Clark a Greenwood High School student. Mr. Clark explained the advantage that attending Central Nine had given him in his position with the Cheesecake Factory. Jenna Heck a current student from Indian Creek High School explained that she plans to attend Ivy Tech and concentrate on Baking and Pastry and Event Planning. Riley Simpson a junior from Franklin Central High School explained that he currently works at St. Francis Hospital as a commissary and kitchen runner. He stated that he plans to continue a career in the culinary field. Taylor Ratliff a Whiteland High School graduate thanked Mr. Smith for everything he taught her and explained how that knowledge has helped her excel in Baking and Pastry at Ivy Tech where she is currently enrolled.

The Board commended the students for seeking additional education after high school. They stated that they admired their ambition, thanked them for attending and wished them well in their future endeavors.

4 Approve Consent Agenda Items

Mr. Greg Waltz, President

Minutes

Dr. Edds reminded the Board that last month there were two anonymous donations to the construction trades class that the Board wished to have brought back for approval this month with the names of the doners. Dr. Edds said that unfortunately the instructor did not know who the doners were so therefore he was bringing them back this month for approval as anonymous.

Gwen Freeman moved for approval of the Consent Agenda Items. Beth Prindle seconded the motion. Motion passed 7-0.
