

November Student of the Month

Auto Service Tech
Mackenzie Colvin
Franklin Comm. H.S.

Mr. Colvin is doing a great job. He is always eager and ready to help in any way. He will be on an internship with Ray Skillman Ford later this year. Mr. Colvin will be a great asset to his employer.

- Mr. Owen-

Auto Service Tech
Nick Hyatt
Franklin Central H.S.

Nick has really been great this year in our program. He has not only been great with leading by example, but he has been helpful to everyone in class. He loves a challenge and he is very responsible. I am very proud to have him represent our program at the highest level.

- Mr. Tucker-

Auto Collision Repair
Zack Newkirk
Franklin Central H.S.

Willing to do the extra things to make the class better.

- Mr. Keen -

Aviation
Evan West
Franklin Central H.S.

Always Prepared!!!! Keep up the great work!!!

- Mr. Gluff & Mr. Salazar -

Computer Science II
Brenden Walters
Franklin Comm. H.S.

Brenden does well with the logical processing involved in programming. He is also very helpful when those around him need assistance. Brenden has good work ethic and a valuable appreciation for Computer Science.

-Mrs. Wilkerson-

November Student of the Month

Comp. Tech Support/ Networking

Jaila McClain
Perry Meridian H.S.

Jaila has been a model student for the PM class. She has constantly maintained a positive mental attitude throughout the school year. Jaila is consistently on time to class and always has her assignments turned in on time. Her willingness to learn is what an ideal student at Central Nine Career Center is all about. -Mr. Mulligan-

Construction Trades

Brandon Fritz
Center Grove H.S.

Brandon is always the first one in line to work on the Construction Trades house. He stays on task and is very helpful with his classmates. Brandon is always looking to learn new skills and improve on the ones that he has learned.

-Mr. Wormann-

Criminal Justice

Anthony Heckathorne
Franklin Central H.S.

Anthony is always engaged and active in class and P.T. He frequently makes suggestions to make the class even better. Anthony is very respectful, dependable and is a great student.

-Mr. Lucid-

Criminal Justice II

Jacob Wilcher
Whiteland H.S.

Jacob displays a passion for Criminal Justice and his grades reflect that. He is professional and leads by example.

-Mr. O'Sullivan-

Culinary Arts I

Zach Betts
Greenwood H.S.

Since day-one, Zach has reflected an impressive level of professionalism along with an energetic eagerness to learn. Zach's "Yes, Chef" attitude and his remarkable work ethic are more in standing with an advanced level of experience. Keep it up, Zach!

-Chef Smith-

Culinary Arts II

Owen Sego
Indian Creek H.S.

Owen comes to class ready to work and gets tasks done. He also shows a great example of leadership in the kitchen.

-Chef Mendenhall-

November Student of the Month

Culinary Arts I
A'lysa Ingram
Franklin Central H.S.

A'lysa is very interested in learning everything about Culinary and she exhibits professionalism and good work habits.

-Chef DeRudder-

Dental Careers
Jasmin Carrillo-Terrazas
Perry Meridian H.S.

I always reserve the November SOM spot for the student whose depiction of Dean Vaughn gets the most votes. This year's winner is Jasmin. She deserves SOM for other reasons as well. She has a good attitude, grades and attendance. She is a pleasure to have in class.

-Mrs. Tunis-

Diesel Service Tech
David Rodriguez
Center Grove H.S.

Good Student and Stays on Task!!!!

-Mr. Prince-

EMS
(Emergency Medical Services)
Adam Rodriguez
Center Grove H.S.

Adam is a squad leader in the P.M. EMS program. We can always depend on his leadership skills. Adam follows the IMPACT rules and helps others out as well. The CERT instructors appreciate his dedication.

- Mrs. Zimmer -

Early Childhood Ed.
Jess Baranski
Franklin Comm. H.S.

Jess is a very positive student. She always participates in class and has a love for early childhood education. She is an extremely hard worker and does well with teamwork and projects. I am excited to see her continue this hard work as we get ready to go to our elementary sites next semester.

-Mrs. Lunsford-

Health Science I
Jagger Thrasher
Center Grove H.S.

Jagger Thrasher is an excellent student in my afternoon HS 1 class. He answers questions, completes all of his work, and has excellent attendance. He is responsible, motivated, professional, and works well with teams. He will make an excellent RN.

-Ms. Pam-

November Student of the Month

Health Science I
Lakiyah Hannah
Franklin Central H.S.

Lakiyah is a hard working, polite, and caring young lady! She is doing an awesome job in HSE II! I enjoy having her in class. Keep up the good work!

- Mr. Rund

Medical Assisting
Abigail Pelton
Franklin Central H.S.

Abigail is always on task. She loves learning new skills. She is always willing to help with anything needed. Abigail will make a great asset to the medical field. I look forward to seeing her successes in the future. She is a pleasure to have in class.

- Mrs. Pfeiffer-

Health Science II - Nursing
Olivia Perkins
Roncalli H.S.

Olivia Perkins is a model of cooperation, collaboration, respect and engagement. She is a sincere and hardworking individual, and an ideal student. She shows an aptitude for learning, is able to complete her work even when multi-tasking, and has a charming personality.

-Mrs. Lawton-

Landscape Mgmt/Horticulture
Ethan Sego
Indian Creek H.S.

Ethan has shown many great qualities in my class this semester. He is a natural leader when it comes to landscaping and leading by example. He shows up every day, works hard, and does quality work. He has been a pleasure to have in class.

-Mr. Moore-

PLTW Bio-Med
Par Li
Southport H.S.

Par is this month's student - extraordinaire! She gives a tremendous amount of effort to her studies, she has a personal drive to achieve and master important skills and concepts and she exhibits genuine kindness.

- Mrs. King -

Precision Machining
Spencer Clegg
Whiteland H.S.

"Spencer has started a paid internship at Lionshead Precision Machine. He will be employed using the skills learned at Central Nine."

-Mr. Willoughby-

November Student of the Month

Veterinary Careers
Maleea McCullough
Center Grove H.S.

Maleea is a hard worker. She not only completes her work and tasks on time but also goes the extra mile to help others!

-Mrs. Smith-

Visual Communication
Adrienne Marquam
Whiteland Comm. H.S.

Adrienne is a first year student who is always willing to learn. She tackles every project with a positive attitude and is always willing to do more than asked of her.

-Mr. Briones & Mr. Magness-

Welding
Caitlin Baudendistel
Franklin Central H.S.

Caitlin was the lead welder in the Center Grove courtyard metal art project supporting another student in becoming an Eagle Scout.

-Mr. Wiley -

Work Based Learning
Brooklynn Phillips
Franklin Comm. H.S.

Brooklynn has shown great professionalism and motivation within the classroom. She has excellent attendance, impeccable work on her assignments, and a shining personality. Brooklynn is doing well in her internship and receives constant glowing feedback from her mentor. Keep up the great work!

-Ms. Gaulin-