Sam has been extremely helpful from the first day of school. He came to the EMT class from the fire class last year and he definitely learned the lessons they taught in that class! He has been especially helpful with students who have not attended Central Nine until this year. He is exceedingly polite and put forth 110% effort during stress week while still helping fellow students who were struggling. Sam is already a good Squad Leader and I foresee other leadership positions in his future beyond Central Nine!
