Central Nine's February Board Reorganization

Every February, the Central Nine Governing Board undergoes a reorganization plan. As part of this year's agenda, the Governing Board voted on a president who will serve for the next two years. On February 11th they elected Mr. Joe Hubbard, from Center Grove Community Schools, Mr. Hubbard has been a board member since January 10, 2019. "It was an honor that I was nominated to be the President for the next couple of years. My personal experience comes from the trades and my passion is encouraging students to follow their dreams within their careers," says Hubbard. "I am extremely honored to be a member of Central Nine yet alone the President, my personal experience comes from the trades and my passion is encouraging students to follow their dreams in the trades."

Other elected positions included Ms. Dawn Downer from Franklin Township Schools as Vice President and Mr. Michael Metzger from Greenwood Community Schools as Secretary.

Also part of the reorganization plan, the Governing Board welcomed three newly appointed members and appointing a board president to serve for the next two years. The new members are as follows, Ms. Becky Nelson from Franklin Community Schools, Mr. Craig Koch from Clark Pleasant Community Schools, and Ms. Jill Laker from Beech Grove City Schools.

"We are very fortunate to have an entire board of people who understand CTE and appreciate it," says Dr. Kovach Central Nine Executive Director. "They have chosen to be here for their passion for Central Nine."
